

Bringing as much food as possible right to the communities we serve.

Tailgates are drive-through food distributions facilitated by local volunteers. Everyone is welcome at the tailgates. We do not require an ID or for proof of income or address.

Each car load is meant to serve multiple families, and we welcome you to take food not just for yourself, but for your neighbors, friends, and family who can't make it. We can't reach everyone alone, but with your help, we can.
